

ILVO

Flanders

is agriculture and fisheries

Ennio Facq

6 November 2023

Roadmap was co-written with:

Greet Ruysschaert (ILVO)
Frederik Gerits (ILVO)
Jeroen De Waegemaeker (ILVO)
Stien Beirinckx (dep. LV)
Laura De Mets (dep. LV)

A roadmap for upscaling carbon farming in Flanders (Belgium)

EJP SOIL has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme: Grant agreement No 862695

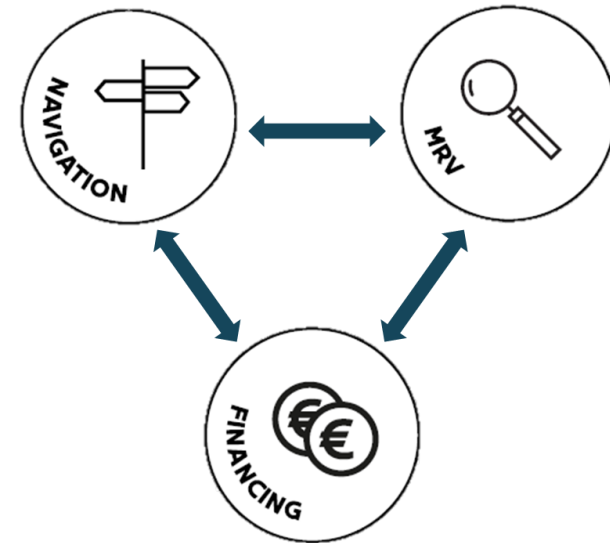

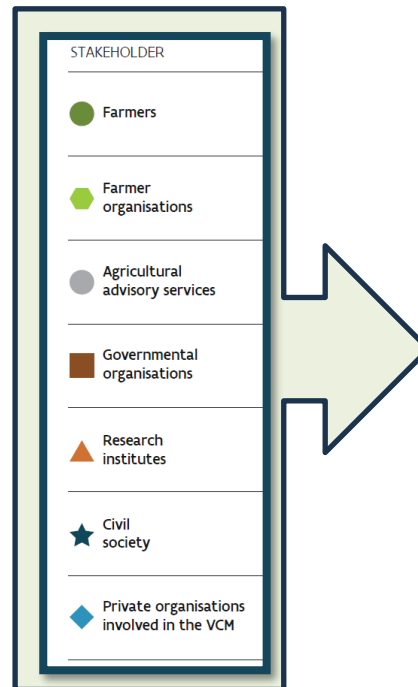

Why?

System analysis

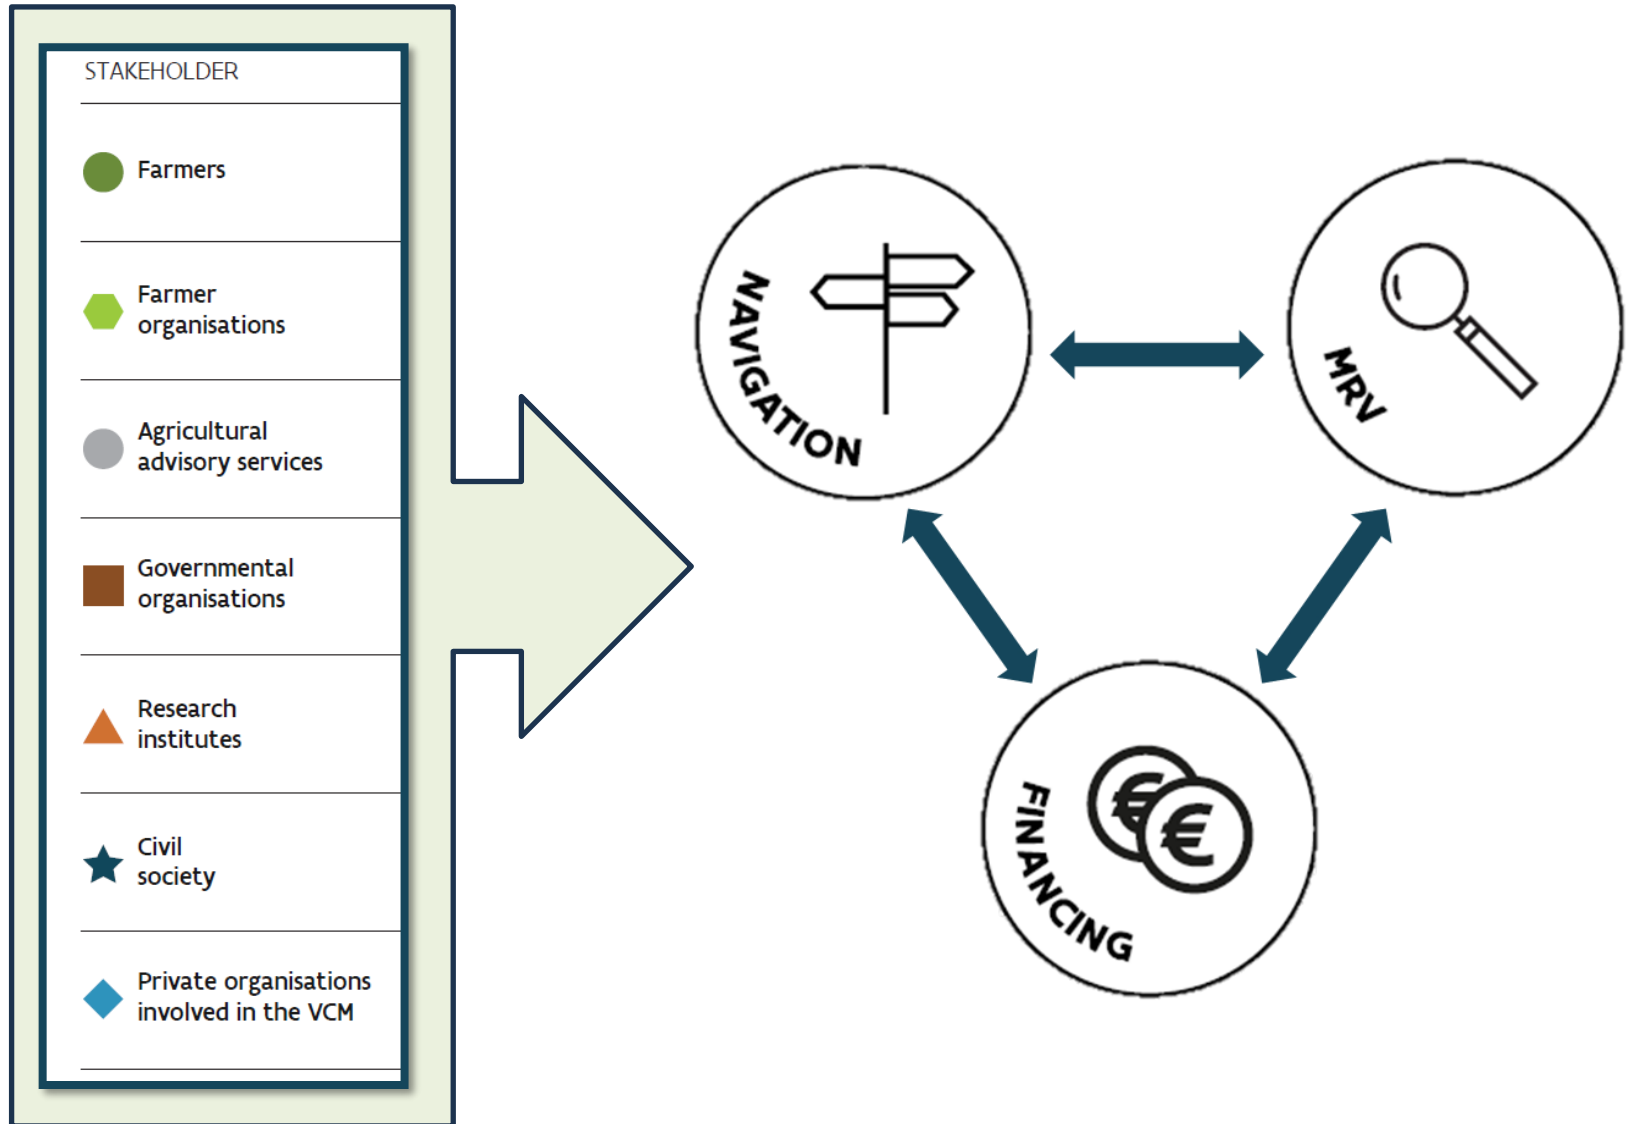

Outside of scope

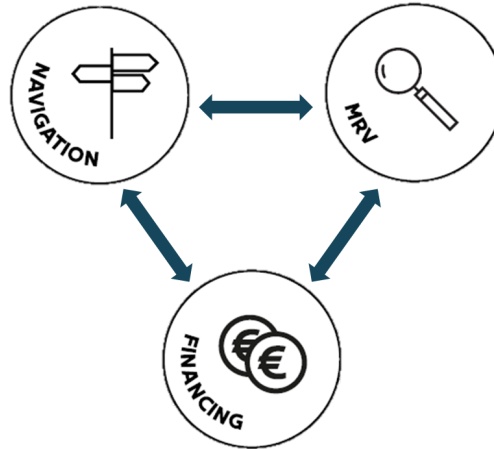

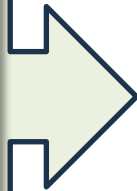

Roadmap

Networks

Actions and functions

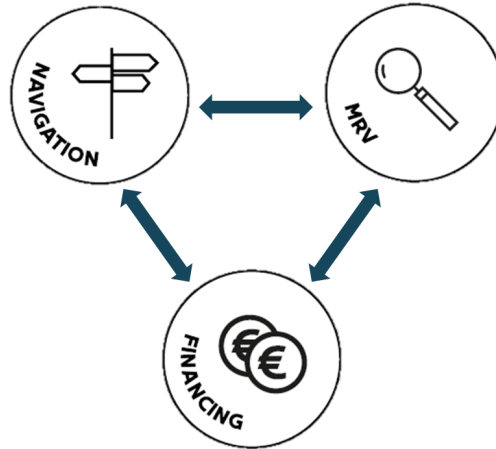

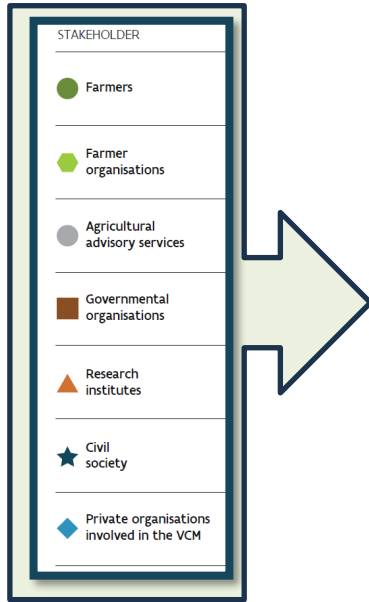

specific to do's with clear outputs

continuous role that has to be fulfilled

Ideal outcomes and possible pitfalls

Actions and functions meet stakeholder expectations

Actions and functions do not meet stakeholder expectations

Navigation network

STAKEHOLDER
	Farmers
	Farmer organisations
	Agricultural advisory services
	Governmental organisations
	Research institutes
	Civil society
	Private organisations involved in the VCM

- Antenna and connector
- Ambassador
- Look at all relevant perspectives

- Carbon farming narrative
- Tackle first mover disadvantage
- Combination of public and private carbon finance

MRV network

Monitoring, reporting and verification

STAKEHOLDER

 Farmer organisations

 Agricultural advisory services

 Governmental organisations

 Research institutes

- Knowledge hub
- Improving knowledge base

- Methods and regional baseline
- Harmonizing protocols for experiments

Financing network

- Evaluate choices navigation and MRV from an economic perspective (macro- or micro)

- Construct innovative financial solutions

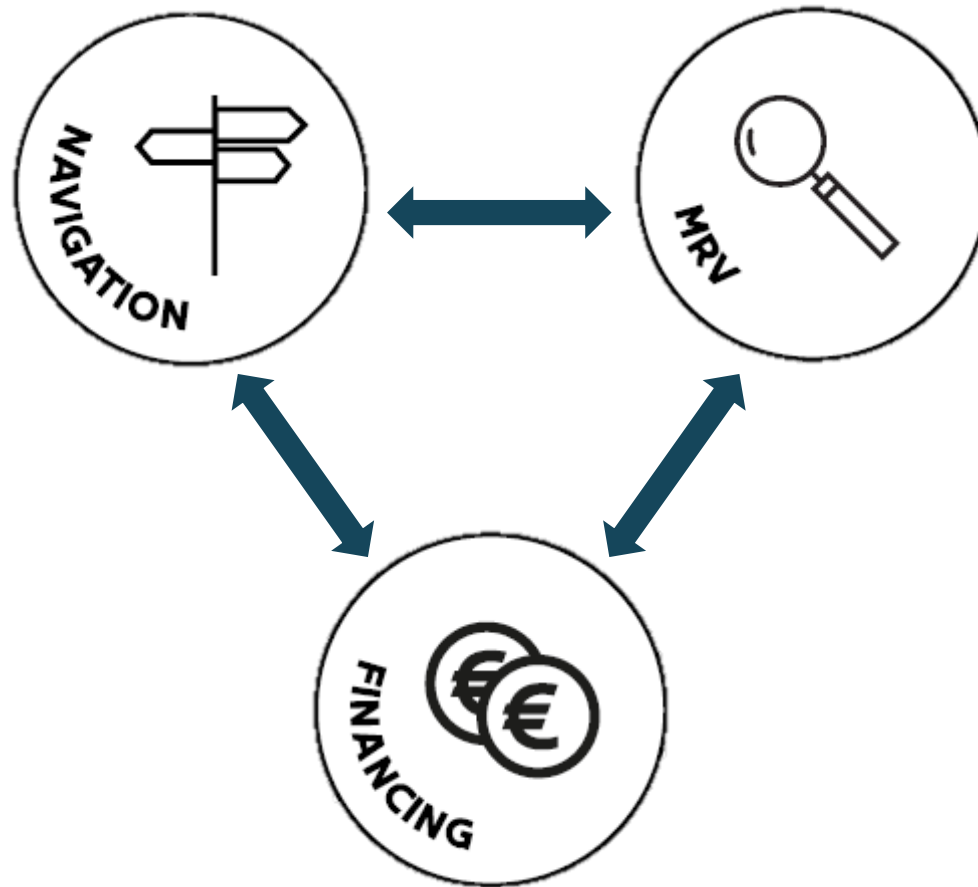

STAKEHOLDER

 Farmer organisations

 Governmental organisations

 Private organisations involved in the VCM

Where are we now?

Where are we now?

Questions?

Research Institute for Agriculture, Fisheries and Food
Burg. Van Gansberghelaan 115 box 2
9820 Merelbeke – Belgium
T + 32 (0)9 272 23 40

l&m@ilvo.vlaanderen.be www.ilvo.vlaanderen.be

EJP SOIL has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020
research and innovation
programme: Grant
agreement No 862695

